Dart Etiquette

Since this is the bye week, we'd like to remind everyone to be respectful of the game of darts. Be good sports by shaking hands or bumping fists before and after games and try not over celebrate victories or behave poorly after a loss. Do not curse, throw your darts or punch and kick walls, tables or any objects in frustration. Don't distract shooters either in your game or another game and keep in mind that while your match may have ended there may be others that are still going. Lastly, be courteous to your teammates and your opponents.
