ADO Winmau Masters Regional March 12th

The ADO 5-4 Winmau Masters Regional will take place at Mighty Mike's in Sterling, VA on Saturday, March 12, 2010. Signups will start at 11AM and play begins at noon. One out of eight entries (men & women) will go on to the National Finals, April 15th in Charlotte, NC to compete for a trip to the Winmau World Masters this Fall in England. See the ADO site or contact us for more information on how to compete in ADO events.

Dart Etiquette & Sportsmanship Terms

Thanks to all the captains and players who have shared their thoughts with us on dart etiquette and sportsmanship. Here's a little review of some things to think about.

Dartiquette: The shortened version of Dart Etiquette. Be respectful of those around you and act as you would if you were a guest in someone's house. Darts is a fun game that can get very competitive. There is never a reason to have an outburst either in anger or in celebration that would disturb everyone around you and you should never punch or kick walls, tables, dartboards or throw darts anywhere other than the dart board.

Timeliness: Our league is an evening league that is also played on what is a work night for most of our members. Please be considerate when it comes to time factors. Work with your sponsor to make sure that boards are made available for league practice thirty minutes before starting time and ensure that your team arrives early enough to start your match at 8PM. The starting time for all matches shall be 8pm, unless otherwise designated or agreed to by both captains and one game must be started at that time (see Rule 5.C). No more than ten minutes will elapse between games. We understand that some players go outside to smoke on their break and are okay with this to a point. Please do not take longer than ten minutes on a smoke break and please do not always use the ten minutes that you have. Excessive breaks are considered unsportsmanlike. If you would like to review a copy of our rules of play they are available online at <http://wadadarts.org/Rules.doc>.

Lurking: Lurking is when you over-celebrate, side coach or loudly talk about another players' match. It's great that you want to watch but please let the players play without your lurking effect the game, since many dart shooters consider it unsportsmanlike.

Chalkers and Talkers: Here is one more etiquette item. If you are blessed with someone willing to chalk, please remember that (even if they are on your team) they are a neutral player the minute they volunteer so even though a chalker can tell you what you hit and what you have left they cannot coach you, suggest numbers to hit or to suggest a finish. In addition, it is considered poor sportsmanship to shout outs and suggestions at a player (on either team) from behind the line. A shooter may turn and ask for help from a captain or team mate but to offer it out of turn is considered poor dart etiquette.
