Arrivals & Departures

Celebrating the lives of our WADA family members

Darts is not a cult or religion but to many of us it's not just a sport or hobby either. The friendships we've made with fellow darters can be as strong a bond as family. And when we lose someone from our family, it's hard, it's painful and it affects our lives. WADA would like to commemorate the passing of our members and hope that everyone will fondly remember the privilege of the times we had with them. In addition to celebrating the lives of our passing members, we also would like to celebrate any additions to the family so send us wedding and baby pictures (maybe not pets) as well. Also, so we get it right, please send us a few words about the member or any details you feel would be appropriate to include. We will try to include any information we receive on the passing of a member in the seasonal newsletters. We are just starting this so forgive us if it's taken a while to pass along the news.

Send announcements and pictures of Arrivals, Departures, or other relevant news to director@wadadarts.org that would be appropriate to send to WADA membership.

Jacob's First Dart Tournament

By Christin McGowan

"I wanna play darts," he said. "I wanna throw." There began the training of 9-year-old Jacob Franchi who has Down Syndrome. All he wanted to do was "throw darts" like his "friends." His training began in May of 2011 at Fast Eddies Fairfax. He learned the parts of a dart and the board before he ever picked up a dart. He began practicing for his first tournament where he would play the youth/adult event the day before his tenth birthday.

Upon arrival to the tournament, he was so excited to play with Doug "Dragon" Watkins and see Darren "Bulldog" Parzow. His first match he and Doug drew Leann Burke and Darren Parzow. The series ended with an awesome 2-1 win for Jacob and Doug. He gave a million dollar smile and simply said "I won! I won darts!"
