Games People Play: Minnesota Cricket

Have you ever seen a scoreboard that extended past 20-15-Bull to include T-D-B at the bottom and wondered what they were for? They stand for Triples, Doubles and Beds. There are a number of cricket, halve-it, and rotation games that utilize these targets. The most popular names used for this variation are Minnesota Cricket, Moose, Milwaukee, Mouse or Wild Mouse, depending on where you play the game.

These cricket variations includes having to hit three doubles, three triples, and three 3-in-a-bed shots (all three darts in the same number). You can score on the triples, doubles and beds the same as the cricket numbers. One dart cannot count two different ways. If you hit a triple 20 in your first turn, you can count it as three 20s or as one triple, not both. All versions are played "slop" so you don't have to call your shot. In Minnesota, Moose (and Mouse) you can only hit cricket numbers for your doubles, triples, and beds. In Milwaukee (or Wild Mouse) you can hit non-cricket numbers so that irritating triple one you inevitably hit aiming at the triple
