Points on the Line Proposal

WADA is always seeking ways to make match play equitable while keeping it fun. We are aware there are teams of mixed skill levels who desire to continue to play with each other. WADA currently has the "salary cap" rule in place (Rule 17.A), but the Board is considering adjusting that to a "points on the line" concept. That is, rather than a team's entire roster being limited by the salary cap, WADA would institute a rule that says the WARPs of the four players shooting in each round cannot exceed a defined threshold. Using our current rating system, the WARP cutoffs are as follows:

AA=>8.3 (= 5 points under the current salary cap system)

A=7.7-8.3 (= 4 points)

BB=5-6.7 (= 3 points)

B=3.3-5 (= 2 points)

C=0-3.3 (= 1 point)

The Board is currently looking at the following "points on the line" limits for the divisions:

A: 32

B: 17

C: 14

An example would be a B level team that has one A (7.7), three BB (5), two B (4), and one C (2). Rather than seeking a team exemption to play in the B division, the team would instead have to keep their four players in the current match (ie, two sets of doubles or four sets of singles) below 17 points. Thus, the team could play the following lineups: A,B,B,C or BB,B,B,C or BB,BB,BB,C or any other combo that would not exceed 17 points, given the player rankings.

However, we need your feedback. Think the limits are too low? Too high? Let your Board rep or one of us know! We encourage you to try it out at your matches so you can get a feel of how your lineup may adjust. We're also looking for ways to penalize teams who exceed their "points on the line" limit, such as forfeiting legs. Give us your ideas! Additionally, our next meeting is on Saturday, 25 February at 6pm at Fairfax Revolutions. Come for the meeting, make your voice heard, and stay for the Luck.
